

UCMUG MEETING — February 19, 2008 — 6:30pm
At Cumberland Cove, Welcome Center

President Bob Weaver brought the meeting to order and ask Bill Reichart for the Treasurer's Report. Bill indicated the balance was $1,991.01. The expenses last month were , $29.94 for MacWorld subscriptions for the Cumberland County High School and Stone Memorial High School. Woody Geisler moved acceptance of the Treasurer's Report and with the seconded by Bruce Campbell the motion passed unanimously. With the comment that the minutes of the monthly meeting are now entered on the UCMUG web site, Pat Cavanaugh moved with Woody Geisler seconding that the minutes be accepted. Motion passed unanimously.

Comments that the iPod Shuffle had dropped in price to $49 and that the Cookeville Staples had the Mac OSX 10.5.2 operating system on hand. Woody Geisler, Apple Ambassador, reminded those wishing increased training in Photoshop should participate in a three day training session in Orlando, FL, April 2 -4, 2008. For further information check with Woody, <woodygeisler@mac.com>.

Bill Monday, working on publicity and promotion explained his efforts as to making contact with the walk-in customers at Office Max. Our and Office Max web sites can have links for shared information and invitation to activities. Office Max may show our logo with contact information in the store and/or have info about our monthly meetings on possible hand outs. Harold Broughton moved that Bill's mutual cooperation proposal with Office Max as outlined be accepted. Motion seconded by Larry Meyers and passed unanimously.

President, Bob Weaver showed by projecting digital pictures from his computer, how to make movies from still photos. This he did with software from LqGraphics.com and utilized the pan and zoom functions. Discussion by Woody also indicated that iPhoto has very similar functions that also changes stills or slides into movies. Some of the effects were similar to the effects Ken Burns the documentary movie producer uses with old photos.

The last twenty or thirty minutes were spent by more experienced members answering individual questions on equipment or software.

Meeting adjourned at approximately 8:30pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Rogers Westlake, Secretary
